

Home for Christmas

She hung the silver bell upon her Christmas tree

She had had it since she was a little girl a gift to her from her daddy

He had told her no matter how young or how old you are

No matter where you live whether it be near or whether it be far

When you hear the silver bell ring it will bring you home for Christmas Day

My daddy's memory is a teardrop of love felt in my heart as if it were yesterday

Every Christmas as I sat down to enjoy dinner with my close friends and family

I would hear that little silver bell ring and know my daddy was back home with me

The spirit of Christmas brings every heart home...
