

Milk and Homemade Cookies

Milk and homemade cookies for a child, that's where life began And where I loved my Mother even more, and her gentle hands
I listened to stories told by her and the precious memories she shared Every question I asked no matter how silly was answered and I knew that she cared Her voice was soft as the wind and soothing music to my ears There was always a twinkle in her eyes and a wisdom of many years As mothers are honoured and celebrated in the month of May Toast her with a glass of milk and some cookies to show your love for her today

From my heart to yours Happy Mother's Day, always
