

Grief is love with nowhere to go. It's been three years since my daughter's journey ended but, her star still shines as bright as the bat light.

Never Forgotten

He brought an empty plate then knelt and placed it in the snow And said, you weren't forgotten today and I just wanted you to know That I miss your joy, your laughter and most especially I miss your beautiful smile I still have all your letters to Santa, and I read them once in awhile Timeless are the pictures I have of you because now my little girl you'll always be There are not enough words in my broken heart to describe how much you meant to me A snowflake kissed the tears on his cheek as if
To say thanks Dad for the memories And he looked up at the stars and whispered
Merry Christmas Tansea

Not forgotten today and always
